

Change of QSCert representative for India

Herewith we announce that QSCert is changing its official representative for The India region from the date 1st May 2019. All rights to represent certification body QSCert have been passed from present representative QSCERT INDIA – A Division of "Brigade Management Services (P) Ltd." to new representative: just in progress – see contact data below.

QSCert does not have any other representative in India!

All clients certified by certification body QSCert will be requested by new representative with offer to continue in contract under unchanged conditions – change of representative will be solved by the contract amendment. Certificates issued by certification body QSCert remain valid and without change.

Certificates will be withdrawn to the clients who won't sign contract amendment (by reason of surveillance audit deny).

Please check all mentioned details for in your own interest on official certification body QSCert webpage: www.qscert.com

Regards

Marcel Sluch
